If you can't make it to Oakdale

We'll be doing a spring open house at the store March 27, 2010 stop in from 11 – 3 to try your hand at an adorable make and take. Check out our great selection of Pinecone Press Kits, they will be on sale Saturday for 40% off! Don't forget to check out all the new products while you are there, we've been getting in great new products everyday!

Bayfield Scrapbooking Retreat

APRIL 16, 17, 18TH 2010

Lake Side Pavilion in Beautiful Bayfield, WI

Greetings to all the faithful scrappers and to the first timers that are thinking of coming this year in Bayfield WI Friday, Saturday and Sunday April 16th,17th,18th, 2010. Ok gals, it is time to tell all your really good friends and relatives about this wonderful week-end in " Beautiful Bayfield" at the lakeside pavilion on the greatest of the great lakes "LAKE SUPERIOR".

This year my goal is 30-50 gals. Can we do it??? Get your reservations in early. The Pine city scrapbooking store is coming back again with a lot of their inventory. I am really excited to include Creative memories gals from Duluth/Ashland here this year bringing along some of their inventory. We are starting a little earlier on Friday the 16th. Last year we opened at 1:00 and some of you wrote on the comment sheet that you would like to see it open a little earlier. We will be opening the pavilion at 11:00 A.M. to start setting up. Just to let the new comers know that we only have folding chairs in the pavilion, so if you want to bring a pad or even bring your own chair, like some of the scrappers do to be more comfortable. Like last year we are not having bottled water. We have wonderful water in Bayfield so please bring your own reusable container to put your water in. Our city is trying very hard to go GREEN. We will have cans of soda available, coffee and tea.

FYI, all lodging places should still have their off season rates so check around. If you can come early on Friday, ask them if you can have an early check-in.
