It's Scrapbooking Season!

January brings me to scrapbooking season, how about you? Now that it has finally turned cold and snowy outside, I can finally get down to business with my papercrafting. We have been stocking the store with beautiful products and samples to inspire you with your projects. I am headed out to CHA (Craft and Hobby Association) to order even more new goodies so stay tuned. If you are not a fan of us on Facebook, do so as I post when new products, classes and crops come up and I'm sure I'll be posting while at CHA!

Just A Note

We have been very busy around the store checking in new Valentines stamps and paper, Easter stamps and paper, Magazines, new designs by Whipper Snapper stamps, My Mind's Eye, Karen Foster and more. Our clearance section has been restocked with Christmas products and others. There are great deals to be had there. Help us clear out the store to fit in all the new products coming from CHA!
